

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

Fifth Annual Cottingham Colloquium:

Building Systems of Care for Disadvantaged People

Sponsored by
Psychological and Counseling Services Program
&
The Student Association for Professional Psychology
Department of Educational Psychology and Learning Systems
College of Education

Friday October 16, 2015

FSU Student Services Building, Rooms 208/218
875 Traditions Way
Florida State University

Goals of the Cottingham Colloquium

- Maintain the sense of excellence and leadership in the Psychological and Counseling Services Program that typified the work of Harold F. Cottingham.
- Help current students understand the ways in which their graduate education relates to diverse options for professional employment.
- Build a stronger sense of community among current and former students, as well as current and former faculty.

Agenda

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| 8:30-9:00 | Light breakfast |
| 9:00-9:05 | Welcome from Dr. Jim Sampson, Associate Dean, College of Education, EPLS Faculty |
| 9:05-9:15 | Introduction to the Colloquium by Dr. Deb Ebener, Professor, Psychological & Counseling Services |
| 9:15-9:20 | Introduction of the Featured Presenter by Dr. Angel Canto, Assistant Professor, Psychological & Counseling Services |
| 9:20-10:10 | Building Systems of Care for Disadvantaged People by Dr. Peter Scanlon, South Bay Mental Health |
| 10:10-11:00 | PCS Faculty Discussants on “Building Systems of Care for Disadvantaged People” Moderated by Dr. Jim Sampson |

Funding for the event is generously provided by the Harold F. Cottingham Memorial Fund