

THE FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

POSTSECONDARY EDUCATION

Damon Andrew, Ph.D. in Sport Administration, B.S. in Physical Education,
M.S. in Exercise Psychology, M.S.E.S.S in Biomechanics, M.E.S.S. in Sport Management

Dr. Damon Andrew serves as Dean and E.B. "Ted" Robert Endowed Professor of the College of Human Sciences and Education at Louisiana State University. Prior to LSU, he was Dean and Professor of the College of Health and Human Services at Troy University, and he taught at the University of South Alabama, University of Florida, and Florida State University. He served as the doctoral program director at University of Louisville and was the founder as well as director of the University of Tennessee doctoral program. His research productivity includes a textbook, 27 funded grants and contracts, and over 120 peer-reviewed articles, reviews, proceedings, and book chapters. He is serving as the Editor, Senior Editor, and Associate Editor of multiple journals and serves on six editorial boards. The American Association of University Administrators and the National Association have recognized his administrative accomplishments for Kinesiology and Physical Education in Higher Education. Dr. Andrew received his Ph.D. in Sport Administration from Florida State University. His education also includes a B.S. in Physical education and M.S. in Exercise Psychology from the University of South Alabama, and an M.S.E.S.S in Biomechanics and M.E.S.S. in Sport Management from the University of Florida.