

THE FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

INTERNATIONAL

Mohammed Nadir Atash, M.A. Science Education, Ph.D. in Measurement and Statistics

Dr. Mohammed Nadir Atash is an educator, researcher, and leader with 35 years of business and academic experience. Dr. Atash is the founder and a board member of the Nooristan Foundation, an all-volunteer charity supporting health care, vocational training programs, and education for women and children in Afghanistan. Dr. Atash also served as the President of Airana Afghan Airlines, Advisor to the Ministry of Finance and Transportation in Afghanistan, and was a Founder and member of the Board of Directors for the Afghan-American Chamber of Commerce. He has also engaged in reform of education, transportation and finance systems in post-Taliban Afghanistan and is author of a book “Turbulence:

The Tumultuous Journey of One Man’s Quest to Bring Change in Afghanistan.” He has implemented projects in challenging environments and successfully worked with urban and rural communities abroad. Dr. Atash received a Ph.D. from Florida State University in Measurement and Statistics as well as an M.A. from Claremont Graduate School in Science Education. He received a B.S. in Chemistry from The American University of Beirut.